

The Bible in a Year: 2008

Congratulations on deciding to read the Bible through in 2008! As a class, we'll be using "The Daily Bible" (arranged by F. Lagard Smith) to keep us on track with daily readings designed to get us all the way through God's Word this year. For many of us, it will be an exciting first. Even if it's your second or seven thousandth time to embark upon this study, you'll find it equally rewarding. Thanks for choosing to share your study with others.

Suggestions:

1. Keep a journal of your reading. Try answering these questions in a few sentences each:
 - a. What happened in this passage?
 - b. What would this passage mean to its audience?
 - c. What does this passage mean to me?
2. Read with a buddy. Keep on encouraging each other. "They" say that 21 days makes a habit. Find someone who will keep asking you every day if you've read yet ... and why not!
3. Pray about your reading.
4. Write down the questions you have.

Week 1 Schedule:

Tuesday, January 1, 2008 –
Genesis 1-3

Wednesday, January 2, 2008 –
Genesis 4-5

I'm looking forward to our class. See you downstairs! 😊

In Christ,

Matthew

Week One Schedule

Initial when you've finished your reading – place this on your fridge as a friendly reminder! 😊

Sunday 30 th	Monday 31 st	Tuesday 1 st	Wednesday 2 nd	Thursday 3 rd	Friday 4 th	Saturday 5 th
		Gen 1-3	Gen 4-5	Gen 6-9	Gen 10-11	Gen 12-14